Thank you for your enquiry regarding the upcoming ACT election, your correspondence has been referred to me to respond on behalf of all Labor candidates. ACT Labor is currently finalising elements of our campaign policies and platform and will provide a response to your correspondence in the near future, a little closer to the election.

Presently, the ACT Labor Government is focusing on it's ongoing response to the COVID-19 pandemic and providing increased support to the ACT community during this time. We trust you understand the circumstances for this slight delay as our Parliamentary team focus on supporting Canberrans through this unprecedented period.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Kind Regards,

Mel James | Secretary
